PUBLISHER'S PREFACE.

I present this Directory to the people of Greensboro, hoping that they will find it as complete and accurate as I have endeavored to make it.

I have nothing to say in regard to the book. It stands on its merits.

“I cannot tell how the truth may be,
I say the tale as 'twas told to me.”—Scott.

In conclusion I wish to thank all who have extended to me their patronage.

No female shall be arrested, however, except in actions for wilful injuries to person, character or property.

The order to arrest must be obtained from a court and is founded upon an affidavit made by the plaintiff or some other person in his behalf that sufficient cause of action exists, and that the case is one of those above mentioned. CHATTEL MORTGAGES.

Following is the form prescribed by statute for chattel mortgages not exceeding the sum of $300:

I,....., of the county of....., in the State of North Carolina, am indebted to....., of..... county and said State, in the sum of.....dollars, for which he holds my note, to be due the.....day of..... A. D. 18...; and to secure the payment of the same I do hereby convey to him these articles of personal property to-wit: (insert description) but on this special trust, that if I fail to pay said debt and interest on or before the.....day of..... A. D. 18..., then he may sell said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, by public auction, for cash, first giving 20 days notice at three public places, and apply the proceeds of such sale to the discharge of such debt and interest on the same, and pay any surplus to me.

Given under my hand and seal, this.....day of
 A. D. 18... ..[SEAL]
 (Signature.)

The disposal of property mortgaged, without the consent of the mortgagee and with intent to defeat his rights, is a misdemeanor by statute. Chattel mortgages are not valid against third parties until registered in the county where the mortgagor resides, or in case the mortgagor does not reside in the State, then in the county where the chattels are situate, unless they consist of choses in action, in which latter case the mortgage must be recorded in the county where the mortgagee resides. Renewal of a chattel mortgage is not required to continue it in force until fully satisfied. Chattel mortgages may be foreclosed by suit in court or by sale, if they contain a power of sale.

COMMENCEMENT OF SUIT.

Process in court may be served ten days before first day of term. The action is commenced by issuing a summons and filing a complaint in the clerk's office. Actions before justice of the peace are commenced by issuing summons to be served on the debtor, which is made returnable at some time and place within the county, to be designated by the justice. Judgment can usually be obtained in two days.

be made. Contracts by which liability may be incurred for over $100 must be in writing and have the seal of the corporation, or be signed by some officer of the company authorized thereto. In case of fraud on the part of an officer or stockholder, the statute makes him personally liable to the creditors in a suit brought in the name of the Attorney General. All conveyances, deeds or other instruments, affecting the rights of a married woman, must be jointly executed by both husband and wife, and must be acknowledged or proved as to both, and the wife must be examined privily and apart from her husband touching her voluntary assent. Deeds are required to be under seal, though a scroll is sufficient.

The wife is endowed, upon the death of her husband, of one-third in value of all the land and other real estate which her husband possessed during coverture. Every man who has married a woman and had issue by her, born alive, after her death, if he survive, shall be entitled to an estate as tenant by the curtesy, during his life, in all the lands, tenements and hereditaments which his wife possessed during coverture.

January first and nineteenth, February twenty-second, May tenth and twentieth, July fourth, First Monday in September (Labor Day), December twenty-fifth, and the Day of Thanksgiving, fixed by the Governor each year, are legal holidays. If any of these days falls on Sunday, the following Monday becomes holiday, and paper due on such Sunday is payable the Saturday preceding, and paper which would otherwise be payable on Monday shall be payable on Tuesday thereafter. When any of the above holidays falls on Saturday, paper due on Sunday following is due on Monday following; whenever any of such holidays falls on Monday, paper otherwise due on that day is payable on succeeding Tuesday. Papers due on holidays, when they occur on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, and papers due on Sunday, not preceded or followed by a holiday, are payable the day before.

INTEREST.

The legal rate of interest shall be six per cent. per annum, for such time as interest may accrue, and the taking, receiving, reserving or charging a greater rate of interest, either before or after the interest may accrue, when knowingly done, shall work a forfeiture of the entire interest, which the note, or other evidence of debt carries with it, or which has been agreed to be paid thereon. And in case a greater rate of interest has been paid, the person, or his legal representatives, or corporation by whom it has been paid, may recover back twice the amount of interest paid, in an action in the nature of action for debt, Provided, such action shall be commenced within two years after the payment of such indebtedness. (This is also the National Banking law in regard to usury, but the State adds): Provided further, that in an action, brought in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover upon any such note or other evidence of debt, it shall be lawful for the party against whom the action is brought to plead as a counter-claim the penalty above provided for, viz: twice the amount of interest paid as aforesaid, and also the forfeiture of the entire interest. And no costs shall be recovered by any party, whether plaintiff or defendant who may endeavor to recover upon any usurious contract. That this act shall not apply to contracts executed heretofore.

JUDGMENT, EXECUTION, AND STAY OF EXECUTION.

Judgment may be obtained at first term after process has been served, unless the debtor pleads, answers or demurs to first complaint. Judgment rendered or docketed in Superior court is a lien on real estate in the county from the time it is docketed; judgments obtained before justices of the peace, bind real-estate from time docketed in Superior court. Executions issued on judgments in Superior court are returnable to the next term of the court. Debtor may stay judgment of justice of the peace six months, by giving good security, when the amount exceeds one hundred dollars, not so long when the amount is under. There is no stay of execution in Superior court.

MECHANICS' LIENS.

Every building built, repaired, or improved, and every lot, farm or vessel, is subject to a lien for the payment of all debts, contracted for work done on the same, or for material furnished, but a vendor has no lien upon lumber for the purchase-money, unless the lumber was purchased with the understanding that it was to be used in building or repairing upon the purchaser's land, nor is a homestead right affected by such a lien. The lien attaches from the time materials begin to be furnished, and the notice relates back to that time. Notice of the lien shall be filed in the office of the Superior Court Clerk within twelve months after the completion of the labor or the final furnishing of the materials. Proceedings to enforce the lien must be commenced within six months from the date of the filing of the notice, provided that if the debt is not due within six months but becomes due within twelve months, proceedings to enforce the lien, may be brought within thirty days after it is due. All sub-contractors and laborers, who furnish materials for the building or repairing of any house or other improvement on real estate, have a lien thereon for the amount of the labor or materials, which lien is preferred to mechanic's lien ; provided they give notice to the owner or lessee of the real estate, who makes the contract for such building or improvement, at any time before the settlement with the contractor, and after such notice is given, no payment to the contractor shall be valid as against the lien of such sub-contractors.

MORTGAGES

are executed the same as deeds, but are valid only, as against creditors or purchasers for valuable consideration, from the registry in the county wherein the land lies. Mortgages are foreclosed by action in the nature of a bill of foreclosure, unless there be a power of sale in the mortgage deed, when the same may be foreclosed by notice, advertised for thirty days at the court house door, as well as in the manner prescribed in the mortgage itself.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS.

Judgment creditor may obtain an order for the examination of his debtor upon an affidavit, showing: 1. The return of an execution unsatisfied in whole or in part; 2. The want of known property, liable to execution; 3. The non-existence of any equitable estates in land, within the lien of judgment; 4. The existence of property, choses in action and things of value, belonging to the judgment debtor unaffected by any lien and incapable of levy; third parties may also be examined where it is shown by the affidavit that they owe the judgment debtor more than ten dollars; on such proceedings, a receiver may be appointed and property discovered, ordered applied to execution.

EXPLANATIONS.

I desire to make a few explanations which will be of assistance in understanding how to use this book. There are several suburban towns which I have included which have no street numbers. In Coneville the residence can be designated only by the name of the street. In Jacksonville the name of that suburb is the only way its inhabitants can be located. In that part of Warnersville which lies beyond the limits I was compelled to put down "Warnersville beyond limits." In Jonesboro I numbered all the houses on the right even numbers, beginning with 2 and running 4, 6, 8, etc., to end. The houses on the left I numbered with odd numbers, beginning with 1 and running 3, 5, 7, 9, etc. So for instance, No. 14 e Market, Jonesboro, means the 7th house on the right hand side of East Market, beginning at the end of the corporate limits. Of course such designations as "rear of No. — — street" will be easily understood. I also wish to call attention to the fact that in giving a man's name, if he is married, I have placed immediately after it in parenthesis the name or initials of his wife. In giving names of members of firms I have placed the firm's name in parenthesis after the individual name. The names of firms are followed by the names of the individual members of the firms. Widows' names are usually followed by the names of their husbands before their death. The city numbers run up to 1099, then instead of going on with 1100, they jump to 2000, run up to 2099 and then jump to 3000.
